Courageous. Badger was posted to the Marine Aircraft Establishment at Felixstowe on 25 October 1937.

In June 1940, he went to 43 Squadron at Tangmere as supernumerary Squadron Leader to gain operational and administrative experience.

On 9 July OC 43 Sqn, Squadron Leader CG Lott, was shot down and badly wounded; Badger assumed command of the squadron.

On the 12th, he shared a He 111 and on the 21st destroyed two Do 17's.

On 8 August, Badger scored a probable Me 109, on the 13th he damaged two Ju 88's, on the 14th and 15th destroyed two others, on the 16th shot down three Ju 87's and on the 26th destroyed a He 111 and shared a second.

Badger was shot down by Me 109's on 30th August. He baled out, but was badly injured when he landed in trees. His Hurricane, V6458, crashed south of Woodchurch. He was taken to Ashford Hospital. Badger was later moved to the RAF Hospital at Halton, but he died there as a result of his injuries on 30th June 1941.

He is buried in the churchyard of St. Michael and All Angels, Halton, Buckinghamshire. Badger was 28. He was awarded the DFC (gazetted 6th September 1940) and also received a Mention in Despatches.
