RAF Cranwell ✓

February 13 at 2:25 PM ·

Today, Air Marshal Lloyd, Deputy Chief of the Air Staff was the Reviewing Officer for the graduation of The King's Squadron comprising of officer cadets from Modular Initial Officer Training Course No 32 and Commissioned Warrant Officer Course No 30 at Royal Air Force Cranwell.

After inspecting the parade, Air Marshal Lloyd said: "I am honoured to be the Reviewing Officer for the graduation of Modular Initial Officer Training Course 32 and Commissioned Warrant Officer Course 30 today. It's a privilege to welcome in the RAF's newest officers, they will be the future leaders in the delivery of air and space power and are joining in a time where we face an ever more complex array of threats. I wish them the very best of luck in their careers".

Thank you to 201 Squadron from RAF Lossiemouth for the tremendous P8 Poseidon flypast and the Band of the Royal Air Force College for the musical accompaniment.

Here's wishing you all the very best for your future Royal Air Force careers.
