Today, Admiral Sir Keith Blount KCB OBE was the Reviewing Officer for the graduation of The King's Squadron officer cadets from Modular Initial Training Course No 40.

After reviewing the Parade Admiral Blount said "I envy those graduating today as they join a modern, agile, and operationally capable Royal Air Force. Congratulations to all and I wish them every success in their future careers."

The event was made special with musical accompaniment from the Band of Royal Air Force College.

We would like to wish everyone who graduated all the very best.
