

Congratulations to Modular Initial Officer Training Course No 35 who graduated this morning in front of the RAF College.

The Graduation was reviewed by the Chief of the Defence Staff, Admiral Sir Tony Radakin KCB ADC who said "Today's graduates have made an extraordinary commitment to serve their nation. Their task now is to apply the Royal Air Force's tradition of courage, innovation, and excellence to a more contested world. I have absolute faith in them. An amazing career awaits."

The Band of Royal Air Force College provided the musical accompaniment, and a spectacular flypast was provided by two Hurricanes from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, RAF Coningsby added a historic touch to the Graduation.

