

Congratulations to Modular Initial Officer Training Course No 37

Today's graduation was reviewed by Air Vice-Marshal Kilvington CBE BSc (Hons) MA RAF, Air Officer Commanding 11 Group who said: 'This is a memorable day for our graduating officers. They follow in illustrious footsteps, and embody the quality, professionalism and dedication which underpins the effectiveness of the Royal Air Force.

I envy all those graduating today as they join an Agile, Integrated and operationally ready Royal Air Force. Congratulations to all, I wish them every success in their future careers.'

The Band of the Royal Air Force College provided musical accompaniment and a flypast by a Typhoon from 11 Sqn, RAF Coningsby marked the occasion.
