Commandant-in-Chief

On entering College Hall, you are greeted by the portraits of HM The Queen and HRH The Duke of Edinburgh, painted by Norman Hepple in 1960 - the year HM The Queen consented to become the Commandant-in-Chief of the Royal Air Force College..

The Queen's Colour for the RAF College

The heraldic portrait of the Queen's Colour is on the East Wall of the Rotunda. The actual colour is held by a large bronze eagle, donated by Sir Philip Sassoon - Secretary of State for Air 1933 - at the west end of the Dining Room.

HM the Queen has been gracious to award and renew the colour on five occasions. The first colour presented by HM The Queen in 1960 hangs in the Church of St Michael and All Angels, the College Chapel. The current colour was presented by HRH Prince Edward in 2016.
